ENCHANT CHILDREN WITH DOG FASHION & COMEDY SHOWS & RACES PLUS REPTILES GALORE AT THE 22ND SUPER PET EXPO

The unconditional love of a pet can do more than keep you company. Pets may also decrease stress, improve heart health, and even help children with their emotional and social skills--National Institutes of Health, News in Health

Edison, N.J., December 5, 2022--Inquisitive and pet-loving children will welcome a visit to the 22nd Super Pet Expo at the New Jersey Convention Center, Edison January 6-8, 2023. Kids can bring their dogs to watch a comedy show, check out the latest in dog fashion, watch their pup run in races and for doggie enrichment, there's lure coursing.

Children can also visit Repticon and learn all about reptiles and how to best care for their animal friends. The kids are invited to bring pets with unique talent from dogs and ferrets to rats and birds to meet Hollywood's trainer of pet stars for tips and an audition.

They will join thousands of pet devotees who will enjoy the expertise of 100 exhibitors addressing pet adoption, pet care and health, grooming, food and daycare. An exceptional array of creative pet gifts, treats, fashion, grooming accessories and toys will be for sale at the largest pet shopping extravaganza on the east coast.

New this year:

- Dexter the Dog is a seven-year-old Brittany Spaniel from Ouray, Colorado who taught himself to walk on his two back feet after losing a leg and weakening another in an accident when he was a puppy. He's a social media star who has inspired many to overcome disabilities.
- Pets and owners are invited to join the laughter from Must Love Dogs and Comedy where co-founders Jolie Dudley and Nicholas Polanco create joyfully chaotic events. They simultaneously raise funds for animal rescue and wellness organizations while providing a platform for underrepresented performers.
- Dog agility demonstrations & free classes produced by Jersey Agility \(JAG\) is exciting and fun while improving a pet's confidence, increase focus and provide exercise

-more-

- Meet the TICA Breeds: United Cat Club will host the TICA Breeds such as Bengals, Maine Coons, Abyssinians, Siamese, and more. Visitors are invited to support the Club by bringing canned or dry cat food that it will distribute to local rescue organizations. Reps from EveryCat Health—that promotes the health and welfare of all cats and their owners--will be there to advise visitors. There will also be a collection of premium quality imported cat toys, treats and accessories not found in stores.
- For dogs that can't get enough of playing with balls, a romp among some 5,000 balls in the Ultimate Dog Ball Pit will be a supreme treat. It's safe, fun, and engaging.
- The well-dressed pet won't want to miss Celebrity Catwalk, where pooches strut their stuff dressed in fashions by top designers for couture-loving canines to wear from weekends to weddings.
- Pawsitively FAMOUS Animal Talent Agency & Podcast's Dawn Wolfe, trainer of Hollywood pet stars, invites visitors to bring their dog, cat, ferret, rat or bird with unique talent for an audition. She'll share some secrets too.

Favorite returning features include:

- Performing celebrity dogs whom visitors will recognize from national commercials and feature films, including members of champion stunt dog trainer Chrissy Joy's Bone-A-Fied Talent Group. They'll show off their Frisbee skills and tricks and demonstrate a toss-and-fetch event—part gymnastics and part Ultimate Frisbee for dogs. Chrissy Joy will do several presentations, with tips on how to get canines involved in show business.
- Dachshund Races aka Wiener Dog Races where a family member, toy or treat will entice participants to dash to the finish line. There will also be opportunities for corgis and mixed breed dogs, with prizes for all winners. Preregistration online is recommended. Fee: $15 per race.
- Repticon in its 10th year, is a showcase of hundreds of reptiles. Experts will give advice and sell supplies and reptile products too.
- Luring 101 for dogs - big and small, tall and short - who love to chase. They take center stage in an enclosed 2,500 square foot luring course set up to give pets a high-speed run that will thrill both pets and audience. An additional fee applies.
