LAUGHTER MEETS CHARITY FOR TWO AND FOUR-LEGGED ATTENDEES AT SUPER PET EXPO, EDISON, JANUARY 6-8, 2023

Edison, N.J., December 5, 2022--A main feature at the 22nd Super Pet Expo January 6-8, 2023, in Edison--performances by comedians for Must Love Dogs and Comedy--will amuse attendees and their pooches. But the animal rescue charities and pet wellness organizations the troupe has supported is no laughing matter.

Must Love Dogs and Comedy has donated more than $16,000 to animal rescue and wellness organizations in the New York metro area via sold-out performances in its brief year and a half life. The good works of co-founders Jolie Dudley and Nicholas Polanco amplify initiatives of such Super Pet Expo exhibitors as Outcast Rescue and Lost Dog Search & Rescue.

Another Super Pet Expo feature is produced by United Cat Club, a not for profit that will host TICA Breeds such as Bengals, Maine Coons, Abyssinians, Siamese, and more. Visitors are invited to support the Club by bringing canned or dry cat food that it will distribute to local rescue organizations. Reps from EveryCat Health—that promotes the health and welfare of all cats and their owners—will also be there to advise attendees.

Visitors will experience the joyful chaos of Must Love's shows. The shows exemplify the expression "pets are part of our family" because dogs are invited to enjoy the comedy sets with their dotting human best friends. In addition to making all creatures laugh, the partners also provide a platform for underrepresented comedy performers.

Dudley described what happened during a long pause in a song sung by one of the comedians: The quiet was quickly broken by the exuberant howl of one of the four-legged attendees, which brought down the house.

Must Love's donations have supported such essentials as an emergency vet fund and a therapy dog initiative. Following are just some of the organizations to which Must Love has donated: Gays for Strays; Korean K9 Rescue; Mission Paws'ble.org; Muddy Paws Rescue; Social Tees Animal Rescue; Bideawee animal people for people who love animals and North Shore Animal League America.

Joining Must Love Dogs and United Cat Club as features at Super Pet Expo are Dexter, a canine social media star who, since an injury, walks upright like a person on his hind legs; dog agility demos & free classes; a high-fashion pet show and celebrity dogs performing Frisbee skills, stunts and gymnastics and a pit with some 5,000 balls for pets to play in. In addition to Repticon where there will be many reptiles including snakes, lizards and more there will also be races for dachshunds, corgis and mixed-breed pooches and the most popular feature lure coursing where dogs play a game of capture the flag. Visitors are invited to bring pets with unique talent to meet Hollywood's trainer of pet stars for tips and an audition.
